To whom it may concern:

It is an honor to write this letter of recommendation for Christopher Coleman and Unlimited Leadership. We have now had Christopher speak on two separate occasions. We found his message so impactful when he spoke at a management conference that we invited him to address our entire operations team a few months later.

His inspiring message can be applied to any type organization and any size group. His ability to connect with the individual by sharing his personal experience is like none I have ever witnessed. He truly challenges people to self analyze themselves in relation to his key question "Are you reaching your maximum potential?"

Chris uses the physical, societal and relational challenges of life as sources of strength rather than obstacles. His story and special delivery will make any audience member think "I can" and "I will" accomplish a set goal.

I have now known Chris for more than two years and I am proud to call him a friend. His passion is contagious and his story is inspiring. I look forward to having him back again soon.

From our experience, inviting Chris into your organization will leave your people motivated to do their best. Please feel free to contact me if you would like additional information on Chris meeting your team.

Sincerely,
